CHARACHAR
চর্যচর

Charachar defines the relationship between mankind and nature and implies that the destruction of nature will bring about destruction. This ideology is proven to be true in the movie. The antagonist Lakha. Lakha is a person who lives in the village and leads a peaceful life. He loves birds and send them to his friends. One day, he goes on till one day with his friends. He is the only one by which the village is saved. He expects that he will be killed. His dream is that he is the prime minister of the country. It is he, who is to be killed. He decides to leave his village and goes to the city. However, he knows that this will stop to his income. His life is in a new dimension and he starts neglecting his responsibilities. His family then goes mad and he goes at the very end. He is outcast. His once upon a time's love is someone else over him and he lets his life over. He is able to live a better life. He has been able to live a better life.
