Introduction

The event has been organized by the Electoral Literacy Club in collaboration with Department of Political Science of P. N. Das College and Charge Office of 107 Noapara Assembly Constituency, Barrackpore, North 24 Parganas. The Voter Awareness Program aimed to educate young voters about the significance of electoral participation in strengthening democracy. The event emphasized the responsibility of citizens to actively participate in shaping the future of governance through voting. This program served as a platform for students to understand the importance of making informed decisions during elections.

Aims/ Objectives

- To inform students about the voting process and the role of elections in democracy.
- To encourage young voters to exercise their franchise in an informed manner.
- To highlight the impact of individual votes on democratic governance.

Outcome

With 42 students participating, the program succeeded in raising awareness about voting rights and responsibilities. Several students shared feedback about feeling more prepared and enthusiastic to participate in elections. Mock voting demonstrations further clarified the procedures for first-time voters.

Introduction

The Department of Political Science, in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS) and the Electoral Literacy Club of P. N. Das College, organized a Voter Awareness Campaign on March 1, 2024, in the College Auditorium. The event combined three key activities: a special lecture, a poster competition, and an awareness drive, all aimed at educating participants on the significance of informed and responsible voting. A highlight of the program was the special lecture delivered by Dr. Tanwir Arshed, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Presidency University, Kolkata. His lecture, titled “The Value of One Vote,” emphasized the power and importance of each individual’s vote in a democracy.

Objectives

- To create awareness among students and teachers about the significance of voting in a democratic society.
- To highlight the value of each vote and its impact on governance, as discussed in Dr. Arshed’s lecture.
- To encourage informed and responsible electoral participation among young voters.
- To provide a platform for students to express their views on democracy and elections through the poster competition.
- To inspire critical thinking and creative expression regarding democratic values.

Outcome

The event witnessed active participation from 69 attendees, including 12 teachers and 57 students. The following outcomes were achieved:

- Awareness: Dr. Arshed’s lecture on “The Value of One Vote” left a lasting impression on students and teachers alike, emphasizing the significance of every vote in shaping the future of the nation.
- Creative Engagement: The poster competition saw enthusiastic participation, with students creating impactful visuals that communicated the importance of voting.
- Prizes Won: Outstanding posters were recognized and awarded, motivating students to engage deeply with the topic.

Result of the Poster Competition:

First Position: Kaninika Pal

Second Position: Pritam Biswas

Third Position: Sneha Khatun

Introduction

In celebration of Women's Day, the department curated a Wall Magazine that showcased stories of women's achievements, struggles, and contributions across different fields.

Objectives

- To honor the achievements of women and promote gender equality.
- To inspire students to research and reflect on the challenges faced by women.
- To raise awareness about the importance of women's rights and empowerment.

Outcome

Five students actively contributed to the Wall Magazine, which became a central attraction within the department. The initiative led to meaningful conversations about gender equality and women's empowerment among the students and faculty.
