

Report on Wall Magazine Presentation:

History of Barrackpore"

Date: 27th July 2023

Organized by: 6th and 5th Semester History Honours Students

Departmental Teachers Present: Prof. Sanjib Kumar Dhar, Sayan Choudhury, Jhumpa Bose

Introduction:

On the 27th of July 2023, the History Department organized a wall magazine presentation titled History of Barrackpore. The event, led by the 6th and 5th-semester History Honours students, aimed to explore the historical significance of Barrackpore, a town steeped in colonial and nationalist history.

Objective:

The primary objective was to enhance students' research skills and provide a platform for creative and academic expression through visual and written content on Barrackpore's history.

Key Themes Covered:

- Early Colonial Era: Establishment of Barrackpore as a British cantonment.
 - Revolutionary Movements: Contributions of Barrackpore to India's struggle for independence, including the famous Mangal Pandey episode in 1857.
 - Cultural and Architectural Heritage: Prominent landmarks, historical sites, and colonial architecture in Barrackpore.
 - Post-Independence Developments: The evolution of Barrackpore as a significant urban center in West Bengal.
-

Event Highlights:

- The wall magazine featured detailed articles, historical timelines, photographs, and creative artwork.
 - Students presented their research findings and explained the historical context of various topics covered in the magazine.
 - Interactive discussions followed each presentation, where teachers and students exchanged ideas and insights.
-

Remarks by Faculty:

- Prof. Sanjib Kumar Dhar: Appreciated the students' dedication and in-depth research, emphasizing the importance of understanding local history.
 - Sayan Choudhury: Praised the creative presentation and encouraged students to explore more untold stories from history.
 - Jhumpa Bose: Commended the teamwork and research efforts, highlighting the significance of visual learning through wall magazines.
-

Outcome:

The event successfully fostered an engaging learning environment, helping students deepen their knowledge of Barrackpore's historical importance. The wall magazine stood as a testament to the collaborative efforts of the students and faculty members.

Conclusion:

The wall magazine presentation on History of Barrackpore was an enriching academic and creative experience. It served as a platform for showcasing historical research and artistic creativity, leaving a lasting impact on both students and faculty members

Publication of Wall Magazine
27.07.2023

Sharmila S

Signature of the Principal

Book Talk Competition Report

Date: 07th May 2024

Venue: Library

Organizer: Librarian

Objective.

The Book Talk Competition aimed to encourage students to read and discuss books, promoting literacy and critical thinking skills.

Participation:

A total of 10 students participated in the competition, showcasing their passion for reading and discussing books.

Judging Panel:

The competition was judged by a distinguished panel of professors:

1. Prof. S.K. Dhar

2. Prof. Choudhury

3. Prof. J. Bose

Winner:

Tiyasha Poddar, a student of 6th Sem Hons. emerged as the winner of the Book Talk Competition, impressing the judges with her insightful discussion and thorough knowledge of the book.

Observations:

- The participants demonstrated a good understanding of the books they discussed.
- The competition encouraged students to think critically and express their opinions clearly.
- The judges appreciated the participants' enthusiasm and love for reading.

Conclusion:

The Book Talk Competition was a successful event that promoted a love for reading and discussion among students. The librarian's efforts in organizing the event were commendable, and the judges' expertise added value to the competition. We look forward to hosting more such events in the future.

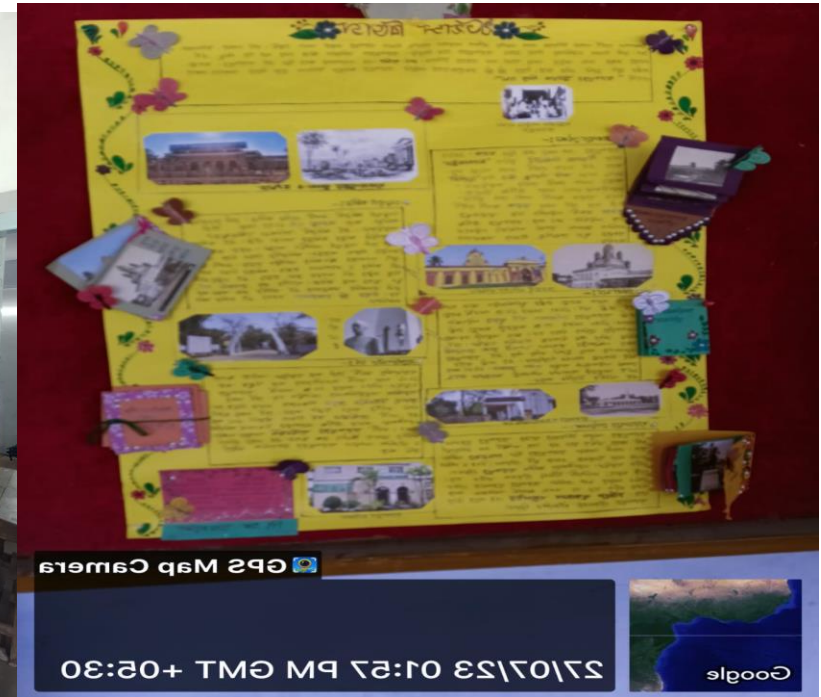

Sharmila S

Signature of the Principal

Departmental Activities
2023-24
Department of History

Publication of Wall Magazine 27.07.2023

Book Talk Competition Report

Date: 07th May 2024

Venue: Library

Organizer: Librarian

First Prize Winner

