

Notice of Online Classes and Assignments

In order to promote online classes during the period lockdown it has been decided by the college authority that students with more than 75% attendance for online classes (video conferencing) and who stick to on time submission of assignments will be eligible for partial fee waiver. In this matter the decision of the college authority will be final.

Principal
P.N. Das College